Marie–Claire and Michel welcome you in their house, and old boarding house and a café “Au Bon Maréchal“ kept by their own grandparents. At the time of Claude Monet and many others artists, that house was much visited. An old studio of artist were at the first floor. After 1940, “Le Bon Maréchal“ became a private house with welcoming chambres d’hôtes. The house is located in the center of the village, at the corner of rue Claude Monet and rue du Colombier, 300m from the Terra Foundation for American Art and Claude Monet Foundation. Three Chambres d’hôtes, with easy acces to the big garden in bloom, private parking, bikes, pets are welcome, open all the year. Enquiries and reservations by phone or fax. Map of the village F 12
